

CHRISTMAS AT
PALACIO SOLECIO

A sacred celebration

ALTAR & TRADITION

Christmas arrives at Palacio Solecio wrapped in golden light, in scents of blossom and wood, in the quiet murmur of a city that softens as evening falls.

This year, the table becomes an altar, tradition becomes ceremony, every gathering an act of devotion.

The Palace pays homage to the sacred art of sharing to the beauty of celebration itself.

THE LIGHT OF CHRISTMAS

When the Palace awakens its ancient glow

From 1st to 4th December

CHRISTMAS DECORATION AT PALACIO SOLECIO

The Palace awakens its inner light. Candles, gilded tones and marble reflections announce the beginning of Christmas. A silent ritual where every corner comes alive, dressed in the grace of old traditions and the ornaments of festivity.

During the first weekend of December, Palacio Solecio welcomes the festive season with the unveiling of its Christmas décor. Garlands, fresh flowers, warm lights and handcrafted details transform the Palace into a scene of Andalusian elegance. An invitation to step inside, to look, to feel that Christmas has truly begun.

5th December

CONCIERTO EN EL BALCÓN

From the main balcony, the melody lifts like a prayer to the Malaga sky.

A melody, a voice, an emotion suspended between air and stone. The Palace sings, and the city listens.

As the sun sets on 5 December, Palacio Solecio celebrates its traditional Christmas concert.

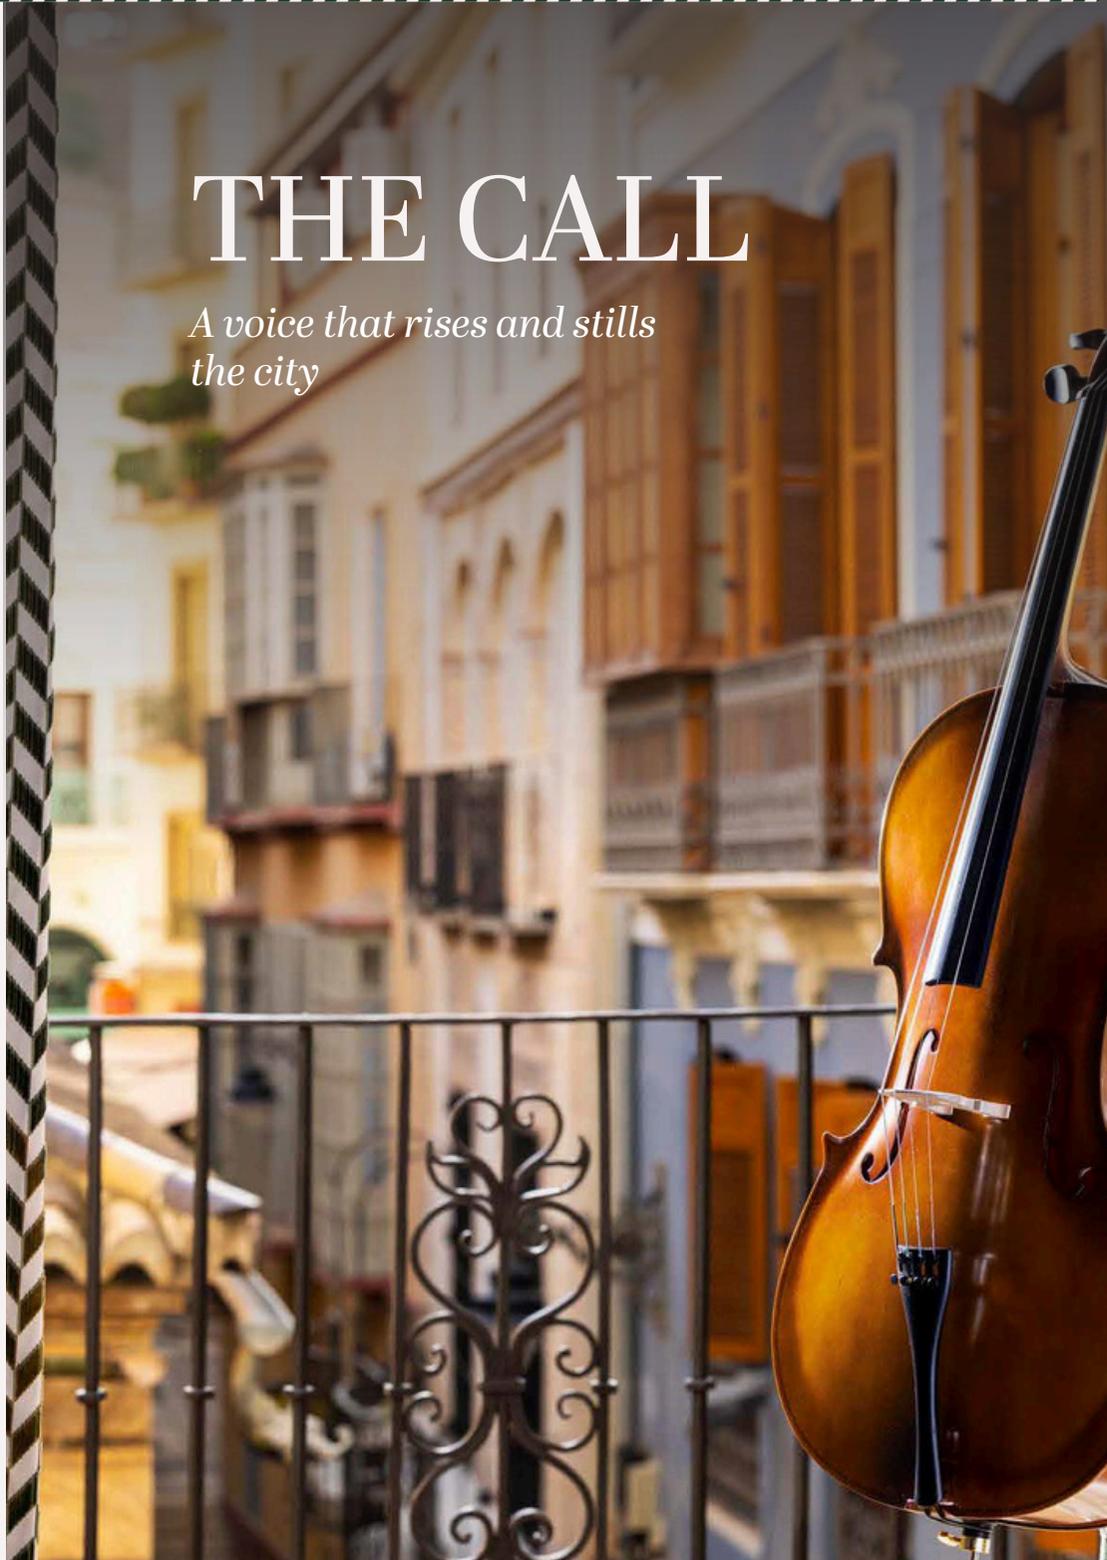

An open-air recital featuring classical pieces and carols performed by a quartet and soprano, filling Calle Granada with harmony and emotion.

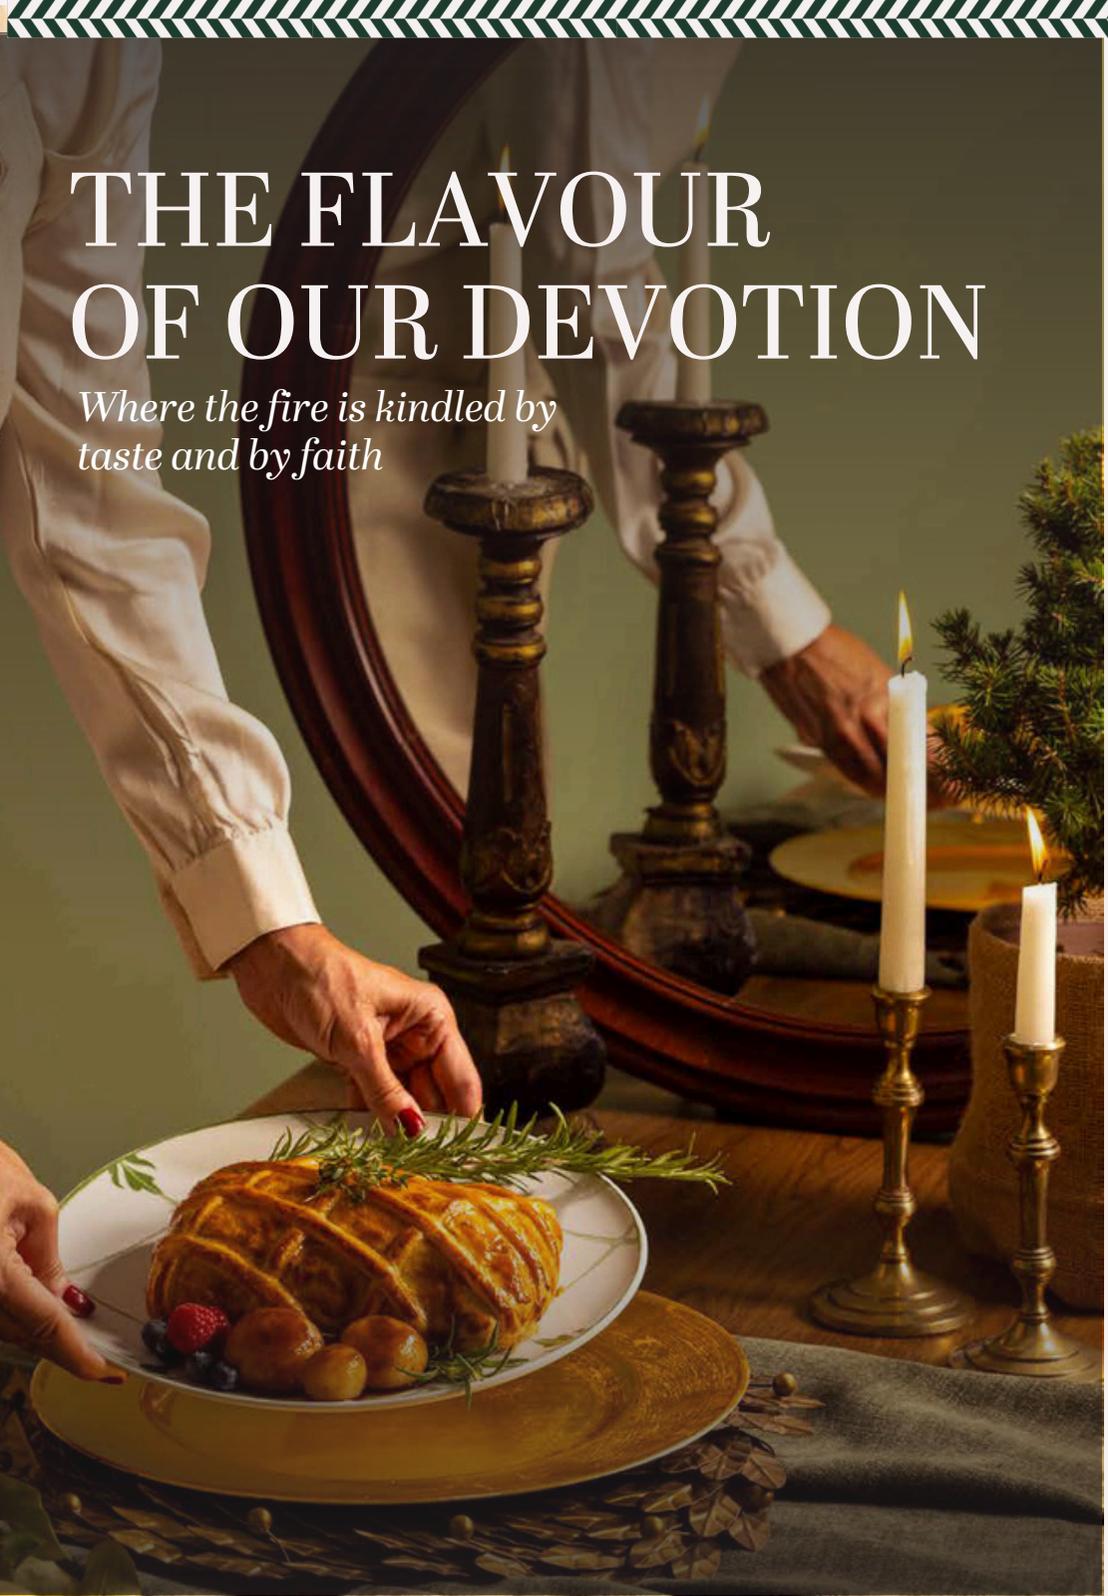

A moment shared, the true beginning of our Christmas in the heart of Málaga.

THE CALL

*A voice that rises and stills
the city*

THE FLAVOUR OF OUR DEVOTION

Where the fire is kindled by taste and by faith

7th and 14th December

CHRISTMAS COOKING WORKSHOPS

In the kitchen, the fire is kindled as it once was.

The chef guides the hands; aromas mingle; laughter dances between pots and pans. To cook here is an act of love, a way of giving, of caring, of offering.

On 7 and 14 December, the Balausta team opens its kitchen to share the secrets of Andalusian gastronomy in two special workshops.

Traditional recipes reinterpreted with local produce, designed to enjoy and to learn in an intimate setting.

An experience that unites flavour, culture and a quiet sense of devotion.

From 27th November to 22nd December

GROUP MENUS

Tables open, glasses chime; words lingers

Our group menus celebrate the art of gathering: the communion of conversation, of taste, of joy. For each toast is, in itself, a small everyday miracle.

From 27 November to 22 December, Palacio Solecio offers its group menus at Balausta. Designed for companies, friends or families, they are an opportunity to enjoy a festive meal in a historic setting.

Dishes inspired by Andalusian cuisine and the unique atmosphere of an eighteenth-century palace turn every encounter into a celebration.

THE BREAD SHARED

Because in every toast, there lies a small miracle

THE CHRISTMAS ALTAR

A dinner devoted to what matters most

24th December

CHRISTMAS EVE DINNER AND STRING QUARTET

The most awaited night

Among strings, laughter and warm light, Christmas Eve unfolds like an intimate gala.

The menu, an homage to the land; the music, a hymn to togetherness. The soul of the South in every dish, in every toast.

On 24 December, Palacio Solecio celebrates its Gala Christmas Eve Dinner, accompanied by a live string quartet.

A special menu created by Chef Sergio Solano, inspired by Andalusian tradition with a contemporary touch.

A night to remember, where elegance blends with the warmth of home.

31st December

NEW YEAR'S EVE DINNER AND STRING QUARTET

The year fades between notes and glimmers.

Midnight falls, and the Palace becomes a mirror of longing.

Twelve chimes, twelve promises. To raise a glass here is to begin anew, certain that beauty endures.

On 31 December, the Gala New Year's Eve Dinner invites guests to bid farewell to the year with exceptional cuisine and live music.

A celebration in the Solecio style: sophisticated, joyful, and rich in nuance.

At midnight, the twelve grapes and the quartet's melody welcome the new year under the Palace's golden light.

THE LAST DINNER

Where time stands still and desire is renewed

THE JOURNEY OF THE MAGIC

Between gold, incense and a sweet farewell

From 1st to 7th January

THE WEEK OF THE THREE KINGS

Calm arrives, with the scent of freshly baked roscón, the gleam of hot chocolate.

In the courtyard, the winter sun caresses
the stone as the murmur of the city softens to a whisper. Christmas departs, but its echo remains: gentle, sweet, eternal.

From 1 to 7 January, Palacio Solecio celebrates the arrival of the Three Kings with traditional roscón de Reyes and hot chocolate.

Served in the inner courtyard, surrounded by soft lights and music, it is the perfect way to close the festive season, a simple gesture that preserves the flavour of tradition.
