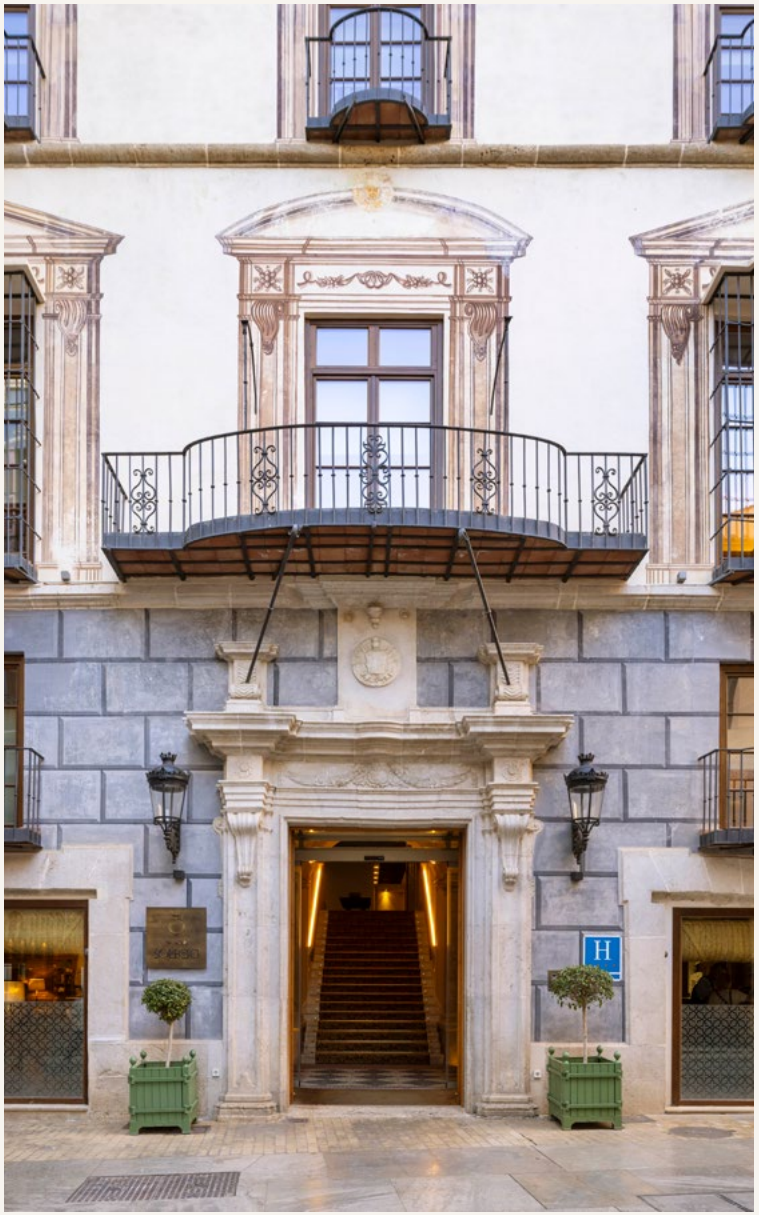
Palacio Solecio

Located on the historic Granada Street, Palacio Solecio is an 18th-century architectural treasure transformed into a charming boutique hotel. The palace, which belonged to the genoese Félix Solecio, has been painstakingly restored, rescuing authentic elements and preserving its original essence, which can be felt in its vaulted courtyard, in the bright and elegant rooms, and in the intimate and stately atmosphere that permeates the palace.

The boutique hotel houses 116 rooms harmoniously distributed between two connected buildings. Each has been designed to reflect the grandeur of Malaga culture, with meticulous decor that intertwines unique architectural elements and contemporary details, creating an elegant atmosphere with its own character.

On its rooftop, guests can enjoy a cocktail under the blue Malaga sky or take advantage of the 300 days of sunshine a year in the pool. Discover a space designed to provide you with maximum comfort and refined luxury.

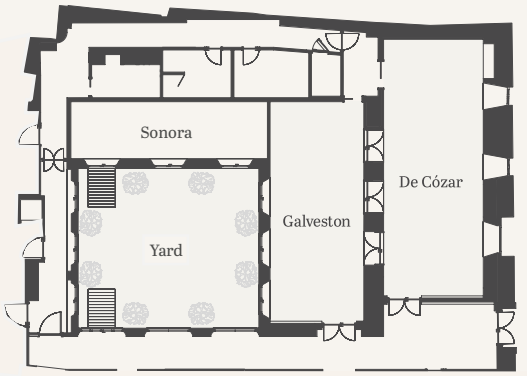


Meetings and events

Palacio Solecio has three naturally lit function rooms designed for hosting tailor-made events. Located on the ground floor of the palace, they are equipped with Wi-Fi, flat screens, and individual lighting and air conditioning controls.

Those wishing to enjoy Malaga's pleasant climate can do so in our charming Andalusian patio, an outdoor space with restored 18th-century elements, ideal for cocktails, coffee breaks, or more informal gatherings.

As a finishing touch, La Terraza de Solecio offers a unique outdoor space where you can celebrate and toast under the blue Malaga sky, surrounded by the charm of the historic center and the Mediterranean breeze.



The event spaces at Palacio Solecio are the perfect setting for meetings, conferences, and celebrations of all kinds. Equipped with the latest technology, these spaces offer comfort and versatility. With a stable and fast Wi-Fi connection, wired internet access with an upload and download speed of 600 MB, and a flat screen with HDMI connection, we guarantee that your presentations and meetings will run smoothly.

The individually controlled air conditioning also adjusts to your preferences, ensuring an optimal environment for every occasion. These spaces are designed to offer a technically and functional setting for your events.
